Certificate in Creative Counselling for Young People - Application Form

Email address: _____

Name: _____

Phone number: _____

Address: _____

Training and Professional Background

Participants in this post-qualifying certificate course will need a thorough grounding in their own therapeutic discipline, as well as a basic understanding of child development, familiarity with the principles of the Person Centred approach, and an interest in using creative approaches to therapy. Please use this section to demonstrate how you meet these requirements.

Professional training and qualifications

Please include the dates, course title and training body for any significant training undertaken, and any additional relevant information regarding how this relates to the requirements listed above.

I would also like to book a place on 'Non-Directive Play Therapy: Principles and Practice'. This two-day training will take place on 13th-14th October 2017 and meets several of the prerequisites for the Certificate in Creative Counselling for Young People. See website for more details.

Details of employer or other (for invoicing purposes)

Practice arrangements

This course encourages reflective practice, and includes a written case study. If you do not currently offer counselling to young people (aged 11-19), please outline how you anticipate finding appropriate referrals to meet this requirement.

Supervision arrangements

Please provide the name, qualification and contact details of your supervisor, who should be competent to supervise work with young people. If your current supervisor does not have this expertise, you are welcome to continue with this form but please be aware that you will need to have these arrangements in place in order to complete the practice elements of the course.
